KATHRYN HUMNICK is a graduate of Wheaton College and their theatre ensemble group, Workout. She is excited to have joined the Open Window team last summer and wears the double hats of Stage Manager and Box Office Manager for this production. She has been involved in the theatre from almost every angle as actor, director, costume-sewer and more. One of her favorite projects was recently adapting and directing her own play, Song of the Unicorn.

NATE FARLEY has been with OWT since season 2 and is blessed to now be on staff PT as the resident designer and House Manager this season. Nate is a Librarian by day - freelance designer/actor by night. He also works with a variety of other theater companies in the area: Bucket Brigade, Front Porch Theater, Spark Theater & Dance, Sidewinder Productions, and the University of Northwestern –St. Paul.

JASON WIPF is excited to be back working with Open Window Theatre. As he puts it, “I love the engaging, thoughtful work that OWT creates. It is a pleasure to be working with such a creative and welcoming team from the actors to the production crew. I would like to thank my beautiful wife, Stephanie, for letting me spend my evenings at the theater. I would also like to thank my Lord and Savior Jesus for the many blessings He has given.”

JEREMY STANBARY is a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln’s Theatre Arts program and toured professionally with his original dramas for tens of thousands since 2003. In 2011, Jeremy and his wife Sarah founded Open Window Theatre and are humbled and blessed to welcome you to this performance.

SARAH STANBARY is the co-founder of Open Window and by far the better half of the Stanbary duo. Sarah is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Theatre Arts program with a double major in theater performance and arts management. When she’s not moonlighting as an actress at Open Window, Sarah is caring for and educating six kiddos at home while running a successful Norwex business. She is also an accomplished ballroom dancer and is available for private dance lessons by calling 651-955-9123.

JEROMY DARLING is an actor, songwriter and speaker based in the Twin Cities. He’s appeared in commercial, print, film, television and various stage productions. In August 2019 he made his television debut on the popular History Channel mini-series The Food That Built America, starring in 2 episodes as Will Kellogg. Jeromy has been married 18 years to his only girlfriend and they have 3 sons: Wyatt (11), Wilder (8) and Wren (4). And last February they finally got their little girl! Charlize was born February 26th, 2020.
