2026-2027 SEASON

DOCTOR FAUSTUS

The Elizabethan Classic by Christopher Marlowe

A cornerstone of western civilization, Christopher Marlowe's DOCTOR FAUSTUS is a powerful cautionary tale about the pitfalls of limitless personal ambition, asking the question: "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, but lose his soul?" The play follows Faustus's rise as a magician through his pact with Lucifer—facilitated by the demon Mephistopheles—and his ultimate downfall as he fails to repent before his damnation. The play has had a lasting influence, inspiring adaptations across stage, film, and other media, and the characters of Faustus and Mephistopheles remain iconic figures in Western literature.

THE LION, THE WITCH AND THE WARDROBE

Adapted by Joseph Robinette from the book by C.S. Lewis

This dramatization of C.S. Lewis' classic work faithfully recreates the magic and mystery of Aslan, the great lion, his struggle with the White Witch, and the adventures of four children who inadvertently wander from an old wardrobe into the exciting world of Narnia. All the memorable episodes from the story are represented in this faithful dramatization: the temptation of Edmund by the witch, the slaying of the wolf by Peter, the witnessing of Aslan's resurrection by Susan and Lucy, the crowning of the four new rulers of Narnia, and more. The supporting characters are also here: the unicorn, the centaur, and other forest animals, along with Father Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, and Tumnus the Faun. This story of love, faith, courage and giving, with its triumph of good over evil, is a true celebration of life.

A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS

The Tony Award-Winning Play by Robert Bolt

To ring in the 2027 new year, we are bringing back Robert Bolt's Best Play Tony Award Winner, A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS, about the inspiring true story of Sir Thomas More and his refusal to submit to King Henry VIII's Oath of Supremacy in 16th-century England. More's brilliant and courageous refusal ultimately led to his dramatic martyrdom and his canonization as a Catholic saint. This remarkable play has been adapted into an Oscar-winning film, and the play enjoyed a highly successful run at our original Minneapolis location back in early 2014.

THE MIRACLE WORKER

The Tony Award-Winning Play by William Gibson

To close out Season 13, we'll be producing another Best Play Tony Award Winner, THE MIRACLE WORKER, by William Gibson. This outstanding play, and the Oscar-winning film that resulted from it, tells the deeply inspiring story of Helen Keller and her "miracle worker" teacher, Annie Sullivan.
